

2. Using the verbs faire and jouer

lundi	mardi	mercredi	jeudi	vendredi	samedi	dimanche
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31
1	2	3	4	5	6	7

3. Using the verbs avoir and être

4. Using the perfect tense of regular verbs

6.Describing a visit to a theme park

7. Understanding the perfect tense of irregular verbs.

8. Using the perfect tense of verbs that take être

Prochaine étape?
Les fêtes!

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person because there are over 300 million French speakers in the whole world! I will be able to talk about a holiday I've been on and say what I did. I will be able to give my opinion and say how long I went for. I will also practise using the past tense and become more confident using the verbs avoir and être.

1. Understanding and giving key dates

2. Saying what festivals you like and dislike and why

5. Buying food at a market using quantities

3. Describing a festival.....

4. Using the present tense of regular -er/-ir/-re verbs

ER/IR/RE

6. Using transactional language at a market

7. Describing basic recipes using the partitive article (du, de la, des)

SOME

8. Describing a recent celebration

9. Using the near future tense with 'aller' and understanding questions about a future celebration

10. Talking about a future trip/celebration

Prochaine étape?
Les loisirs!

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person because there are over 300 million French speakers in the whole world! I will be able to tell them about what festivals and celebrations I like and dislike and ask them what they like to celebrate. I will then be able to tell them about my next celebration and what I like to eat on my special day!

Why am I learning this?

Everyone has a hobby, something that they enjoy doing. Hobbies allow us to have fun, make new friends, understand ourselves better and allow us to relax. Being able to describe your favourite TV programme, actors and actresses, talk about what you do on your mobile phone, arrange a trip and talk about your favourite hobby are all very important in conversational French.

1. Talking about where you live.

2. Using qualifiers that can change meaning.

très
trop

5. Using 'on' to mean 'you'

3. Describing the weather

4. Talking about activities in your town

6. Using 'On peut' + infinitive

7. Talking about how you help at home

9. Talking about your daily routine using reflexive verbs.

8. Using devoir + infinitive

10. Telling the time, including The 24 hour clock

11. Writing in detail -Using connectives,sequencers and time phrases to extend ideas

Bravo Year 8!!

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person because there are over 300 million French speakers in the whole world! I will be able to tell them about my home town; what the weather is like, what activities there are to do there and also what I like and dislike about my local area. I will be able to describe my daily routine, including what I do to help at home.

1. Describing your Family

2. Using possessive adjectives

Mon Ma Mes

5. Describing where
you live

Joli jolie

3. European Languages Week

4. Agreement of Adjectives

6. Using the nous
form of ER Verbs

Nous jouons

7. Using en/au with countries

En Angleterre
Au Canada

9. Checking written work for accuracy

8. Adapting Texts by substituting words

10. Creating a cartoon family

Prochaine étape....
En ville et au café!

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person about my family in more detail. I will then be able to tell them more details about myself ; describing my family, my home and where I live. I will also be able to describe where other people live. I will be able to write in detail about my family life using possessive pronouns and adjectives !

1. Saying what there is in your town

2. Saying what facilities your town does NOT have

5. To say where you go at the weekend using 'aller'

3. Describing where you live using 'habiter'

4. Giving opinions about your town village and reasons why

6. To be able to invite someone to a cafe

7. To be able to accept or decline an invitation

9. To be able to order snacks and drinks

8. To plan a meeting at a café

10. To be able to complete a role play of a café scenario

Prochaine étape....
Les vacances!

Why am I learning this?

I am learning this so that I can communicate with another French speaking person because there are over 300 million French speakers in the whole world! I will be able to confidently describe my town and be able to give relevant opinions why I might like or dislike the area I live in. In addition, I will be able to describe specific places of interest that I typically visit in the area that I live. Finally, I will develop some useful transactional language that will help me order drinks and snacks in a French speaking country